

Annual Evaluation

Evaluating your efforts at the end of the year is always good for growth. The Henry Latimer Center for Professionalism would like to know and hear about your mentoring program. Information shared on this evaluation may appear on the Center's website or our newsletter The Professional. Please take a moment to complete this evaluation in its entirety and mail it back to: The Florida Bar, attn: Henry Latimer Center for Professionalism, 651 East Jefferson Street, Tallahassee, Florida 32399-2300. The Center would like to personally thank you for starting your mentoring program and making a difference in our legal profession.

1. What is the name of your organization?
2. When did your mentoring program start?
3. How many mentors and mentees are presently involved with your program?
4. How would you describe your mentoring program (i.e. episodic, reverse, electronic, group, traditional).
5. Who would we contact for more information about the program?
6. Who does one contact if they want to be a mentor or mentee?
7. Please provide a web link to information about your organization's program or provide a brief description of how your mentoring program operates. Feel free to attach descriptive materials if that is easier.
8. Please provide any suggestions, comments, or critiques regarding the mentoring toolbox provided to you by The Henry Latimer Center for Professionalism.
