*It is expected that a LAL Advisor requesting CLE credit for a Lawyers Advising Lawyers matching and interaction would have spent approximately 50 minutes in total time responding to the inquiring lawyers inquiry inclusive of research time, sharing documents, sharing forms, providing recommendations/counsel to the inquiring bar member in order to justify being awarded 1.0 hour of General CLE Credit for one completed referral. Abbreviated, short referral matches that are handled in shorter periods of time do not warrant the award of the CLE credit hour and should not be requested.

BLSE Policy 5.10 (k) Lawyers Advising Lawyers. An enrolled advisor in The Florida Bar Lawyers Advising Lawyers (LAL) Program may receive 1 general credit hour for each LAL referral they accept from the program where the advisor and advisee connect and the advisor provides advice to the advisee. The amount of credit received must not exceed 5 credit hours per year.
