

The Florida Bar

Benchmarks: Raising the Bar on Civics Education

Adult Civics Teaching Presentations

Pursuant to BLSE policy 5.05(h), members who present an Adult Civics activity, are eligible to receive 1 ethics credit per presentation with no more than 3 credits per reporting period.

Name _____ Bar Number _____

Presentation Date(s) _____

Signature _____

BLSE Policy 5.05 (h) Adult Civics Teaching Presentations. To support The Florida Bar's initiative to teach the fundamentals of government and the courts to adult civic and community groups through its "Benchmarks: Raising the Bar on Civics Education" program, continuing legal education credit will be given for presentations. For each presentation, a member shall receive 1 ethics credit hour. No more than 3 credit hours for this activity may be claimed during a member's 3-year CLER reporting cycle.

Please fax your completed form to 850/561-9421

Attention: Legal Specialization and Education Department.