(1) Lawyers who write articles, books, and chapters in books may receive credit when the material is accepted for publication in a professional publication or journal.

(2) Credit will be based on the time devoted to preparation, quality, originality, and scope of publication. No single publication approved for credit may exceed 50% of the total hours required for CLER compliance.

(3) When a publication has more than 1 author, credit may be awarded to each author or divided among them in a manner consistent with the facts presented by all the authors.

(4) CLE publications steering committee members may receive up to 10 credit hours for their work. The staff editor's recommendation will be considered when determining the number of credits awarded.

Materials submitted for CLE credit review will be discarded once the credit has been determined. Should you wish to have your materials returned, please enclose a self-addressed stamped envelope.
