
QUICK REFERENCE CHECKLIST - WEBSITES

The following quick reference checklist is intended to assist advertising lawyers in developing advertisements that comply with the lawyer advertising rules. Websites are not required to be filed with The Florida Bar for review. However, they are required to comply with the substantive lawyer advertising rules in Rules 4-7.12 through 4-7.17 and 4-7.21. A specific aspect of a website such as a specific page, provision, statement, illustration, or photograph may be filed with The Florida Bar for review on a voluntary basis under Rule 4-7.19(d) with a filing fee of $150. A filing of an entire website will not be accepted by The Florida Bar. Id.

Even if all the questions are answered NO, it does not mean the advertisement complies with the lawyer advertising rules.

If the answer to any of the following questions is YES, the advertisement does not comply with the lawyer advertising rules, subchapter 4-7, Rules Regulating The Florida Bar.

- Does the advertisement fail to contain the name of at least one lawyer, the law firm or qualifying provider (lawyer referral service, matching service, group or pooled advertising program, directory, or tips or leads generator) responsible for the advertisement?
