PROGRAM LEVEL

Basic – A course designed for the practitioner with no experience or limited experience in the area of law in which the course deals. A survey course is considered basic unless there are recent, significant changes in the law.

Intermediate – A course designed for the practitioner experienced in the area but not necessarily an expert. A survey course in which there have been recent, substantial changes will be deemed intermediate. In an intermediate course, some segment may be low intermediate or basic, and others high intermediate or advanced; in those instances the course taken as a whole will be considered intermediate.

Advanced – A course designed for the practitioner with extensive experience in the subject matter of the course.
