OVERVIEW

The 2023 Federal Judicial Roundtable & Reception will provide a unique opportunity for judges and federal practitioners to have meaningful, interactive and informal discussions regarding current trends and issues impacting federal practice. The format will include a state of the district address by a judge from each Florida district and focus on table discussions between the bench and bar. This event is very popular and historically has had over 200 judges, practitioners, professors, and law students in attendance.

Please register for the 2023 Federal Judicial Roundtable & Reception using The Florida Bar Annual Convention portal. The event is free for all judges, lawyers, law professors and law students. Space is limited. You can attend the 2023 Federal Judicial Roundtable & Reception without paying convention registration, but you must pre-register.
