Credit Approval Guidelines Policy

5.08(c) Demonstrations and Moot Court. Trial and appeal demonstrations and moot court presenters may receive up to 3 credit hours for each 50 minutes of participation. Presenters include moot court judges and advocates. An attendee may receive 1 credit hour for each 50 minutes of attendance. A member cannot claim more than 9 credit hours for these activities during a 3-year CLER reporting cycle.

CLER Lecture Credit Policies

5.10(a) Lecturing. Satisfactory performance as a lecturer in an approved Continuing Legal Education (CLE) seminar may entitle a lawyer to credit. The maximum credit awarded is calculated based on presentation time.

(1) Credit Approved. Credit will be approved for:

- (A) up to 3 credit hours for each 50 minutes of lecture time at basic seminars;
- (B) up to 5 credit hours for each 50 minutes of lecture time at intermediate seminars;
- (C) up to 7.5 credit hours for each 50 minutes of lecture time at advanced seminars;
- (D) up to 3 credit hours for each 50 minutes of participation in an intermediate or advanced seminar;
- (E) up to 2 credit hours for each 50 minutes of participation in a basic seminar; or
- (F) additional credit for extraordinary effort at intermediate or advanced seminars, determined by staff on a case-by-case basis.

(2) Credit Not Approved. Credit will not be approved for lawyers who:

- (A) repeat a lecture or performance at 1 or more locations;
- (B) serve as a CLE program steering committee chair, cochair, course moderator, or present introductory and welcoming remarks; or
- (C) prepare a lecture outline for a CLE presentation beyond that granted for delivery of the lecture.
