| Number of bench trials over which you have presided: | approximately 30 |

In 400 words or fewer, without discussing any issue that has or may come before you as a judge, explain why you would be a good judge. Consider what relevant skills and experience you gained from previous employment that you bring to the bench.

As the current Hamilton County Judge, I have over a year of experience. Throughout my time on the bench I have demonstrated my knowledge of the substantive, procedural, and evidentiary law. As both an attorney and a judge, I have exhibited my ability to communicate effectively and clearly both orally and in writing. Further, I have effectively managed the court dockets over which I preside and encouraged the timely disposition of cases.

Patience is a virtue that a good county court judge must have. Over my career, I have worked with children victims and witnesses, difficult victims and witnesses, supervised new and experienced attorneys, and presided over cases with many different personalities. These things have all helped me to be patient on the bench.

It is also very important that every person that comes before the court be treated fairly with dignity and respect. My track record shows that I treat everyone equally, fairly, and with respect and dignity.

Please list activities, accomplishments, honors or leadership roles in pro bono, volunteer, public or military service:

Prior to becoming a prosecutor, I volunteered in a pro bono clinic that assisted citizens with civil rights restoration. As a prosecutor, I was very limited in pro bono work that I could do; however, I did sit on the pro bono committee for one year. I have served on the TJC Grievance Committee, and Professionalism Committee, and I currently sit on Local Professionalism Panel. I served as the local president of the young lawyers section of the bar association. I also served on as a board member and president of the Third Judicial Circuit Bar Association.

I am a current member of the Jasper Woman's Club where I participate in volunteer and civic activities as permitted by the judicial cannons. I am also a member of the Daughters of the American Revolution. I try to educate the youth in Hamilton County about the judicial system.
